Incoming! How Will US Govt Signal The Arrival Of Planet X? Exclusive ANP Interview With Bob Fletcher - Jade Helm 15 Nibiru Link

How Our Government Will Signal the Arrival of Planet X
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
Bob Fletcher

By Stefan Stanford - All News Pipeline - Live Free Or Die

All News Pipeline recently reached out to researcher Bob Fletcher of Bob Fletcher Investigations about the mysterious 'Planet X' that we have been hearing about so much recently to ask him his own thoughts about whether or not he believed Jade Helm 15 was somehow tied to the return of this 'planet of the crossing'. With more and more alleged sightings of 'Planet X' all over our planet Earth recently, we are republishing in full Fletcher's response to us below for our readers to discuss and debate in the comment section below.

Telling us that he does indeed believe that Jade Helm is tied to 'Planet X', we urge our readers to look over this new information he's shared with us to determine whether or not they, too, feel that the many signs we are now seeing are due to the return of this mysterious 'planet'.

Focusing partly on the massive weather and Earth changes across our planet and what world government's are doing to prepare for 'the return', is 'Planet X' really returning and has it wreaked havoc on our planet many times before, including causing historical floods such as the flood of Noah? How will our government signal the return of Nibiru/Planet X? Bob shares his thoughts below.

This is a very interesting read and we thank Bob for taking the time to write this out for our readers. We have also included a recent video of Fletcher with Augusto Perez on the The Appearance Portal discussing many of these same subjects for those who prefer to watch the video below. You can also order his latest DVD "In-Coming!" here.

Latest Planet X Nibiru
Updates with Bob Fletcher

In reference to the story you are working on, relative to the Jade Helm 15, military experiment, or military exercises, and it's possible relationship to planet X or Nibiru or a related Celestial problem that is ,"INCOMING".

In my four hour, double disc DVD presentation titled, "Incoming", I clearly explain all of the interconnections and pieces of the puzzle that would indicate that we are soon, within the next year or two, to be visited by this extraordinary infrared planet making its way back to circle the sun one more time, after a multitude of prehistoric visits to earth.

It's close passing around the sun obligating the earth to actually go through the tail of this space junk dragged around by Nibiru, two times, about 155 days apart.

As well as the earth, being directly affected by Nibiru 's physical effects on our sun, moon and other planets; this including the crust and the surface of Earth. It will be an event repeating Noah's flood's; it will wipe out most of the electronics from satellites back down to the earth and earthbound generational systems.

Nibiru has already altered our weather on a permanent basis and it will not move back to its regular seasonal program for a long time. It has regenerated volcanic activity; it has caused effects on the very crust of the earth itself; it is aiding and abetting in the rapid melting of glaciers in both the North and South poles.

These effects, were realized back as far as 1983, while Ronald Reagan was president and programs were put into operational concepts, at that time.. including the expansion of the secret underground facilities as survival locations for the limited few.

I certainly believe that the Jade helm 15 military exercises are a finalizing of the potential for martial law in the United States.

Martial law must be in effect, at some point in time before the actual sightings become commonplace of a new star headed our way, getting larger on a weekly basis as it approaches.

There will never be an announcement from an official capacity, indicating that this is headed our way.

But militarized police and sheriffs and the military themselves have to be in place to control the mass exodus. This action must take place prior to the official sighting or unofficial sighting by thousands of amateur astronomers when the time comes.

I was not aware of the Jade Helm 15 plans , when I was completing the four hour double DVD presentation. However, I do clearly explain the relationship of the need for martial law. I am showed the militarization of policing organizations across the country, etc., which we began, way back in the 90s.

The first titled military practice exercises like those of Jade helm's 15, was ,"Rex 84 "put together in 1984 by Ronald Reagan and George Bush, and was exposed publicly in the congressional hearings on the Iran-Contra investigations at the congress. I was in fact a federal witness supplying information to the congressional investigation.

Rex 84 was,"Ready Emergency Exercise , 1984", which included the suspension of the Constitution.

Thanks for asking my opinion and information related to Jade Helm 15

If you will notice there is very little official confirmation or unofficial news releases on this program.

You may use this information in your story if you wish, but please include the address of my website, bobfletcherinvestigations.com

Thank you
Best Regards
Bob Fletcher

Bob Fletcher joins Augusto Perez in this video that was just released a week ago. Bob joins at the 4 minute 50 second mark along with Larry Taylor and begins by telling us what got him involved in Nibiru in the 1st place; he was once an investigator investigating government corruption at the highest levels.

In the video above, Bob presents good info. but it's all stuff we've known for a LONG LONG time...Jade Helm is NO secret. Extremely deliberate style, as if he's afraid of saying the wrong word or something? I mean I understand he's old, but no need to always say "the United States of America".....just say the US or America.....

Hmmmmmmmmm.................Ronald Reagan and GHW Bush. Interestingly enough, the crime syndicate that formed in America in the early part of the 20th century eventually morphed into the US federal government. One common denominator that major nation changing events of the devastating kind have over the last 50 years is The presence of the foot print of a one GHWBush. While Planet X may well be on its way, I firmly believe that there was actually a " Report from Iron Mountain." I believe that is has been followed to the letter. Just so happens that it was about 50 years ago conceived and has been worked and tweaked a bit here we are.. Regardless there are too many coincidences for me to dismiss it altogether.

I do not normally comment on insanity but, I am sorry, but are you all insane or is it just me?! To believe such total nonsense and also ascribe it to the Word of the Almighty must mean the cooooooolade is working overtime. I am a physicist and a strong believer of the Christian Faith according to scripture and also have understanding of the celestial forces of gravity and motion etc better than the average folk, and I have heard this guy talk, and I am sorry again but he is talking cobblety goooooglag, totally disjointed in his facts and lacks complete understanding of the laws of forces and motion and behavior of light. Yes, true infra-red emission (heat band of the spectrum) is invisible to the human eye, but this body if existed would still reflect visible light from the sun and would by now be easily visible considering its supposed size and relative position. Heck we can see Mars with the naked eye and its much much smaller. And to attribute biblical events to the passing of this imaginary created body show a total a total lack of understanding of the WORD of GOD and GOD Himself. This man just makes things up out of thin air, and correlated nonsense with his imagination from the void of his head, and for anyone to think that he would know the exact affects this supposed passing body would have on earth is just plain simple minded and easily led every which way. And also, how can he say that if it doesn't appear this December, don't worry it will next December; really!!!! Those guys supposedly making their mathematical celestial computations of the orbit of this Px, must be morons. These things are virtually exact science and we can through real mathematical computations predict exact locations and times of planetary bodies in our system including incoming comets which are spotted from a huge distance and the trajectory plotted accurately and times and locations accurately predicted. That one statement destroys his whole argument. And secondly, if this thing did exist it would have created total havoc in its first passing through our system and you and I would not be here discussing $%#%^&*%. There are so many holes in this mans arguments and facts he presents that you might as well discuss it with my pet parrot Budgie who has an excellent vocabulary. Its a ponzy scheme, everyone wake up please, he is taking you for a ride as all the others are on this topic,

As for you my friend, don't strain yourself to express your feelings. You must be a very sad and angry person to speak that way and live an empty life. I feel only sorrow for you, as you will continue to hurt yourself by your mental state, unless you change your thought processes. You must have had a really bad experience to feel the way you do. i am therefore not offended by you but pity you. No need to reply please, as I will not be back.

I believe Nibiru is described in Revelation 13 as the "Beast from the Sea" sea being space. I think we are given coordinates in verse 2, "...his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion". This could quite possibly mean out from the mouth of the lion (constellation Leo) and down from the foot of the bear (constellation Ursa Major). If this is true it would put Nibiru close to the constellation Cancer and Cancer is not visible now because it is to close to the sun. September is a good month for viewing Cancer so we might get a good look at Nibiru then!

I don't know about planet X. There will be signs in the sky and mens hearts failing them for fear of the things coming upon the earth..planets? maybe, who knows.
rev 6 is also interesting, unbelievers hiding in holes/bunkers saying hide us from the wrath of the Lamb/Christ..yet the whole of rev 6 shows mostly the 4 horsemen=principalities over men (see daniel 10, rev 13:4-5, luke 4:5-6 and others for how fallen angels and devil empower men) the 4 horsemen as principalities over men making war and famine and more across 1/4 of the earth still have that element of men doing it/following the prompting of those fallen ones, that wouldn't be wrath of the Lamb then..? but wrath of devil and men. Rev 12:12, wrath of devil, devil empowers men too, so wrath of devil, and men are the tools used often enough.
So then what's going on that unbelievers are saying-hide us from the wrath of the Lamb/Christ? not saying-hide us from the wars and such going on outside the bunker, but hide us from the Lamb of God?
And what means did God often use to judge? He used enemies armies sure, but also natural and unusual means, earthquakes and solar storms and all sorts of things, a planet x used and useful for the judgements, but also a planet x not at all needed to bring the judgements either.

Who knows about a planet x but I suppose it isn't the point even, the point is- the judgements of God-whatever method He uses to bring them, be saved already flee to Christ to escape the coming judgements of God for sin and unbelief.

also interesting, the difference between the 7 seals (rev 6 mostly) and the next up- 7 trumps (beginning in rev 8:7)..flaming hail and rocks falling to the earth and all sorts of more 'natural' disasters, something a planet x is supposed to bring with it. These 'natural' disasters right after the seals are done, is why mens hearts failed them for fear of the things coming, why they hid in bunkers saying hide us from the Lamb of God and not said-hide us from the wars of men and devil..?

This whole planet X thing makes no sense because by now we would see it in the night sky. The world governments cant silence everyone with a backyard telescope. Im not a believer in planet X but its not out of the realm of possibility another celestial body exists that that we dont know about.

If a planet was headed this way as has been talked about for several years now, it would be able to be seen by amateur astronomers and pics would get out. Governments could only keep quiet for so long. So far, nothing has come out by anyone that shows a planet headed this way.

............I have not a clue. But I will tell you this. I live in the central Sierras in California at about 1400' above sea level. As little as 5 years ago at night time all of the nighttime sky was visible. The stars , yada , yada, yada. The chemtankers have blocked that night time view.Needless to say only a handful of stars shine through anymore. I aint even sure if they are stars. My point is the view may possibly be blocked.

I took photo's of the moon swirls that circle Planet X which is hard to see and photograph because of the large amount of red dust and debris that surrounds the planet. It does not reflect light but can be spotted with a red filter. But the moons swirling behind the planet can be spotted - which is what I saw and photographed.

I'll have to check that out. I would think if it's visible, it should be here in a fairly short time. I mean the earth circles completely around the sun which is several hundred million miles in just 365 days. So I would think a planet that's visible would be here in a few months time to maybe a year or two. I've been hearing about people seeing Planet X for at least 3 years now.

The huge sphere being identified as the second sun is actually being mistaken for Nibiru. Nibiru is not white, it is known as the 'red dragon' and the images that have been captured of it, are in the red spectrum. The second sun originates from a much higher dimension and it is now manifesting into this dimension. This is one of the reasons it is not always visible. It is not hot like the sun is and that is why it is not being imaged on SOHO, which maps heat signatures. Read all about and see some extraordinary photos and videos, along with a prophecy from the Lord explaining what it is, at revelation12.ca

Dear John,
If you do the research what you will find is that as it comes in it will be a silver - blue color, only as it makes its exit, will it then turn RED in color, this is well documented world wide, the Hopi Indians who call it the BLUE Kachina, that is followed by the RED Kachina,
The word value for Kachina = Teacher.
The Blood MOONS x 4 is due to the very high Iron oxide content in the outer levels of our magnetosphere, Keep in mind that once it pass's by, we will then again go through the tail on the back side of what will full of all kinds of space junk / rocks etc. that we will be beaten with yet again.
That cycle is about 140 - 150 days based on written records.
Peace be with you
